

LAW IN ACTION II

THE COURSE

- Law in Action II is a brand-new class being offered in 2023-24 for the first time, and it is only being offered at Woodson at this time.
- Law in Action II will explore the historical development of the Supreme Court and its jurisprudence, seeing how our history has affected our Supreme Court and how our Supreme Court has affected our nation's history
- Students will analyze the decisions of the Supreme Court to see how the Court interpreted the law and what that interpretation means for us and our rights moving forward.
- We will end the year with a Moot Court “tournament” to practice Appellate Advocacy and the application of law and precedence as we learned in class

WHO SHOULD REGISTER FOR LAW IN ACTION II

- Students interested in learning more about the law and their rights
- Students interested in pursuing a career in the law
- Students interested in developing skills to help transition to college
